Student Meal Payment

BASIS DC uses a third-party billing application system, Blackbaud. This user-friendly application allows for greater efficiency and flexibility in accounting and collection services, offering various payment methods. BASIS DC utilizes Blackbaud as an online processing and collection of agreed upon fee payments.

When a student goes through the lunch line to receive a meal, the NSLP Coordinator will scan the student specific barcode on their ID or Communication Journal (CJ). If the student does not have their barcode readily available, the student will provide the student ID verbally to the NSLP Coordinator. The NSLP Coordinator will match the account to the student based on the student picture. If a student is classified as paid, the cost of the meal will be added to the monthly total.

Costs of all meals between the first and last day of each month will be charged to the student's Blackbaud account in the following month. Payment in full is due on the last day of the month when billed.
